

Rye Meadows Architectural Concepts

Wooden 5-bar gates and field nameplates and a discrete storage barn

Handmade seats and benches

Boundary Architecture

Dead Hedges

Laid Hedges

New Ponds, Scrapes and a Rustic Boardwalk

Ashtead's WWI Centenary Field

A curving boardwalk custom designed with the Lower Mole Partnership

Nesting Boxes and Berms

Look out for these when you walk through the fields this week

This carefully crafted berm is in the Gullets which are east of Footpath 24

Copses of Native Trees

2012 Volunteers laying out one of the first copses: in Gullett North

10 years later in Winter Meadow South

Architectural Plants

Crows Nest Tree (Centre Back)
Hanging Sedge (foreground)

Bull Rushes

Specimen Trees
Whispering Aspens in Fraudings

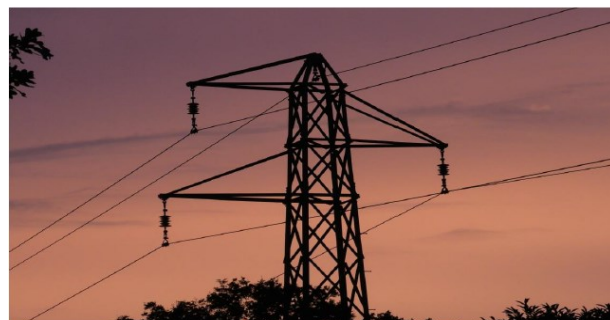

Teazels

Unwanted Architecture

Overhead cables on wooden poles were kindly buried by UKPN in 2017

We are still hoping to say goodbye to the steel pylons and 33kV cables

For more photos of Rye Meadows go to <https://www.facebook.com/ashteadryemeadows/photos>